

Language Identification Organizer

Listen closely and check off each sentence or partial sentence as you hear it.

- who share the experience of being part of the LGBT community
- labels and the words we choose to describe ourselves
- naive, beyond hopeless in terms of having any sense of who we were
- a place that you could be free to have your family
- two women or two men could go into court and co-adopt children
- where the far right was saying, oh, you can catch gay
- I was very aware that the world didn't like us.
- gender performances, and, you know, identities that didn't reflect who I was
- the gender identity issues were so tied in to the role confinement
- gay issues compared to the little progress we've made around racial matters